RESILIENCE Observer Agreement

<<organisation>> declares to be willing to commit itself to obtaining the Observer Status in RESILIENCE (Religious Studies Infrastructure: tooLs, Innovation, Experts, conNections and Centres in Europe – Grant Agreement No 101079792) for the duration of the project, until May 31st 2026.

Privileges

During this period, RESILIENCE (represented through Fscire, Bologna, Italy) will grant <<organisation>> the following privileges:

1. <<organisation>> will receive priority invitations to newly developed RESILIENCE tools and services;
2. <<organisation>> may attend the General Assembly and meetings of other bodies and Working Units, but with no voting rights;
3. <<organisation>> will be granted access to external and internal RESILIENCE communication channels to be able to follow latest developments;
4. <<organisation>> will gain access to open access and open source resources, as well as to resources in the observers' area of the RESILIENCE cloud, in accordance with project Intellectual Property Rights rules;
5. <<organisation>> will be able to participate actively in the post-project RESILIENCE infrastructure development according to the status it will enjoy at that moment.

Contributions

<<organisation>> commits itself to the following:

1. contribute to RESILIENCE by providing expertise in the field of <<...>> , services such as <<...>>, library and archival resources (as specified in <<...>>) and/or technology such as <<...>>;
2. participate in RESILIENCE activities;
3. engage activities towards national RI-membership.

No financial obligation is requested from either party by this agreement.

<<organisation>> appoints <<name, function and email of person>> to represent it as an Observer in RESILIENCE.

For the <<organisation>>	For RESILIENCE
Signature:	Signature:
<<name person authorized to sign>>	<<name person authorized to sign>>
<<function>>	<<function>>